

We have recently published a Digital Learning Vision for our students which states that digital learning is an essential part of education today to prepare our students to thrive in school and after. Although our E-Rate funding has been instrumental in allowing much of the progress we have already made, the needs of our students are exceeding our capacity at times. Access to additional funding would benefit our students, our families, and our community.